

Hopkins Homes in the Supreme Court

In February 2017, the Supreme Court heard the appeal of Suffolk Coastal District Council v Hopkins Homes Ltd UKSC 2016/0076. In this seminar, which will be held shortly after judgments are handed down in Hopkins, leading members of Landmark's planning team – including Christopher Lockhart-Mummery QC and Zack Simons who acted for Hopkins Homes – will examine the ramifications of the judgments in Hopkins, which are likely to be profound and wide-ranging for all involved in planning for housing across the country.

Details

Date: Monday 19th June 2017

Time: 17:00 - 19:15

CPD: 2

Who is it for? Planning Solicitors, Consultants, Developers and Local Planning Authorities

Fee: £50 +VAT. Free for local authorities

Venue: Landmark Chambers
180 Fleet Street
London
EC4A 2HG

Programme

16:45 Registration

17:00 Introduction by the chair
Christopher Lockhart-Mummery QC,
Landmark Chambers

Speaker topics will include:

- The Supreme Court's views on the role and function of the National Planning Policy Framework;
- The meaning and effect of paragraph 49 of the National Planning Policy Framework;
- In particular, the correct approach to determining what are "relevant policies for the supply of housing";
- The relationship between the "presumption in favour of sustainable development" at paragraph 14 of the NPPF and the statutory presumption in favour of the development plan at section 38(6) of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004.

19:00 Questions and Discussion

19:15 Drinks and Close

To Book Your Place

Visit our website

http://www.landmarkchambers.co.uk/forthcoming_events_and_seminars