

The Significance of and Future for Neighbourhood Plans

This seminar will cover the progress of the new neighbourhood planning regime brought in by the Localism Act 2011 and the changes introduced by the Housing and Planning Act 2016. There will be particular emphasis on neighbourhood plans and their examination. It will also address recent changes in policy guidance and case law, including the imminent Court of Appeal Judgment in the DLA Delivery case, the WMS on the application of para. 49 of the NPPF to neighbourhood plans and anything arising from the pending Housing White Paper. The likely further changes to the legislation and in particular the Neighbourhood Planning Bill will also be covered.

Speakers will include Christopher Lockhart-Mummery QC, Stephen Morgan and Heather Sargent.
