Practice Summary

Eian Caws was called to the Bar in 1974 and, following pupillage in 2 Paper Buildings and Francis Taylor Buildings, he returned to Paper Buildings to take up tenancy there in 1975.

From there and subsequently, following the Chambers move to 4 Breems Buildings, he has specialised in planning, environmental, compulsory purchase and highway law. This work has involved his appearance in a large number of public inquiries and in the courts, acting for a wide cross-section of corporate, public sector and private clients. He has also been appointed to sit as an Inspector, to chair an Examination in Public of a Structure Plan and has assisted in the Planning Inspectorate's internal training programmes. Eian Caws is a committee member of the Planning and Environment Bar Association.
