Practice Summary

Alistair was called to the bar in 2011 and his areas of practice are planning, environmental, and public law. He is the author of Interpreting the NPPF: the New National Planning Policy Framework (Bath Publishing, 2018). In 2019 and 2020 he was ranked by Planning Magazine in the list of the top-rated planning juniors under 35. He has appeared in leading cases in the Court of Appeal.

He has been a member of the Attorney General's Panel of Civil Counsel (C Panel) since 2017 (moving up to the 'B' panel on 1 September 2021).

The Legal 500 said of Alistair in 2020:

"Alistair is a highly skilled advocate, he is very thorough with both submissions and advice, is very responsive to queries and is able to quickly digest complicated issues and pull out key points."

European Union Law

Alistair's practice raises matters of European Union law. In the context of planning and environmental law, the decision of the Court of Appeal in R (Shirley) v SSHCLG [2019] EWCA Civ 22 included arguments on the interpretation of the Air Quality Directive. The social security cases SSWP v MC [2019] UKUT 84 (AAC) and IG v SSWP [2016] UKUT 176 (AAC) concerned the EU harmonisation regime for social security benefits.

Planning

Alistair has been in a number of significant cases.

- R (Hawkhurst Parish Council) v Tunbridge Wells BC [2020] EWHC 3019 (Admin) – Alistair appeared unled for the Claimant (the Interested Party was represented by a KC). This case raised the correct approach to transport assessment under para. 109 of the NPPF.

- R (Judson) v Amber Valley BC [2020] EWHC 517 (QB) – Alistair appeared unled for the Claimant (the Council was represented by a KC). This case concerned whether the Council, in granting planning permission, had lawfully considered the question of contamination at the site.
- City and Country Bramshill Ltd v SSHCLG [2019] EWHC 3437 (Admin) – Alistair appeared for the Secretary of State, led by Guy Williams, in relation to this challenge to a decision of a planning inspector concerning a 106-hectare estate containing the Grade I-listed Bramshill Mansion. The High Court considered a number of matters, including the interpretation of national policy on isolated dwellings in the countryside, and heritage. The Claimant appealed to the Court of Appeal (at which the Secretary of State was also represented by Guy and Alistair); judgment is awaited.
- R (Shirley) v SSHCLG [2019] PTSR 1614 – Alistair appeared for the successful Secretary of State, led by James Maurici KC. This case concerned a challenge to the refusal of the Secretary of State to call in a planning application for his own consideration, and raised arguments concerning the Air Quality Directive. The appeal was dismissed on all grounds.
- R (Historic England) v Milton Keynes Council [2019] JPL 28 – Alistair appeared for the successful local planning authority, unled (the Claimant was represented by a KC). This case concerned the duties on local authorities when determining planning applications in conservation areas, and the requirement to give reasons under the EIA regime.
- Dunnett Investments Ltd v SSCLG [2017] JPL 848 – Alistair appeared for the appellant, led by Christopher Katkowski KC. The appeal concerned the important question of the exclusion of permitted development rights by condition.
- R (West Berkshire DC and Reading BC) v SSCLG [2016] 1 WLR 3923 – Alistair appeared for the local authorities, led by David Forsdick KC. This case concerned a challenge to new national policy concerning developer contributions from small developments, and the vacant building credit.
- R (Smech Properties Ltd) v Runnymede BC [2016] JPL 677 – Alistair appeared for the Appellant led by James Maurici KC, in a case concerning the discretion of the court not to quash a grant of planning permission.
- Jones v Mordue [2016] 1 WLR 2682 – Alistair appeared unled for the successful appellant in the Court of Appeal, in this significant case concerning the approach to challenging decisions of Planning Inspectors in the heritage context.

Alistair appeared unled for the successful Secretary of State in (to his knowledge) the first ever determined appeal under the Welfare of Wild Animals in Travelling Circuses Regulations 2012. Alistair appeared for the Environment Agency, led by Charles Banner, in the inquiry concerning water abstraction from the Test, Itchen and Candover.

In addition to major court challenges, Alistair has experience of proceedings before Planning Inspectors. He was junior to Graeme Keen KC in promoting the County Durham Plan at examination. He represented a group of developers at the Epping Forest Local Plan Examination (led by Charles Banner). He appeared for the Local Planning Authority in a planning inquiry into a residential scheme in November 2020, raising issues of landscape/visual impact and heritage impact. He represented the developer at a two week inquiry into a residential-led scheme (led by David Elvin KC), and the local planning authority at the call-in inquiry concerning into Milton Keynes (also led by David Elvin KC).

Alistair has a wide-ranging advisory practice. As well as his book on interpreting the NPPF, Alistair is the editor of the Digest of Decisions interpreting the 2012 NPPF, and an Assistant Editor of the Planning Encyclopedia.
